VOLUME 56 | SEVEN CENTS | EAST JORDAN, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1952 | SEVEN CENTS | NUMBER 49

E. J. H. S. Football Team Member Named by Detroit Newspaper To All State Class C Eleven

For the second year in a row, East Jordan High School was honored by a Detroit newspaper in having a member of its football team named to the All State Class C eleven.

The Detroit Times Sunday named James Shepard, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Shepard and honorary captain of this year's "Red Devils" to a tackle post on its 1952 All State Class C eleven. Shepard, 160 lb. senior and three time letterwinner with the Jordanites, earlier in the week had been named to the All Northwestern Michigan school-boy eleven by the coaches of this issue. The latter selection was at a guard position.

Last year it was Donald Whiteford who gained all state honors by being named to the Detroit Free Press All State Class C team. This fall Whiteford participated with the strong Michigan State Freshman squad and last week was named as one of the outstanding boys on the 104 man Frosh squad coached by Dan Devine, one time East Jordan High School mentor.

Three members of this year's "Red Devils" eleven in addition to Shepard were given honorable mention on the Detroit Times 1952 All State Class C team; they were: Keith Evans, Floyd Detloff and Lawrence Chanda.

"Red Devils" Lose To Class B Team Alpena Catholic Cen.

Alpena Catholic Central, rated as one of the top Class B basketball quintets in the state, lived up to its advanced publicity Tuesday night as they easily outpointed an inexperienced East Jordan High School five, 65 to 30, on the Alpena court.

Winners of 15 out of 16 games during regular season play last winter and quarter-finalists in Class B tournament play, the "Hurons" with a veteran aggregation back dominated play clear through the contest and from the opening whistle, the "Red Devils" were clearly outclassed.

Ayotte, 6'4" pivotman and certainly one of the state's top school-boy cagers, paced the winners with 24 points and was a tower of strength on defense. Warren Frank topped the local scoring effort with 3 field goals and as many free throws for 9 points.

Coach Gayle Saxton's quintet will be hosts to the Pellston "Hornets" here, tomorrow (Friday) night as both teams open conference play. The Reserve Teams will clash in the first game Friday night in a tussel slated to get underway at 7:15 p. m.

Meeting at the South Arm Grange Friday

The South Arm Grange will meet this Friday evening, Dec. 5, at 9:00 p. m. at their hall for a special meeting to decide on their Christmas party and about raising money for the treats. Pot luck lunch at close of meeting.

The Grange wishes to thank all of the Legion and Auxiliary members for the help and support they gave the grange for the benefit bingo for the Bob Graham family Oct. 25th.

November Weather

The sun-bathers didn't have it so good in November, as there were only 4 clear days, with 26 cloudy or partly cloudy. With the exception of 6 days drizzling rain during the latter part of the month, the weather wasn't too bad, except it was too warm for the deer hunters. This made business for the locker plants all over the north.

The average Max. Temp. was 46.4 degrees and the average Min. Tmp. was 32.9, for a mean of 39.6, which is 3.2 degrees above the 25 year average.

The percipitation amounted to 3.71 inches, which was .08 inches above average. Most of this was in the form of snow during the last 4 days of the month. An inch of dry snow contains about .04 inches of water, and heavy wet snow contains from 8 to 12|100 inch.

The temperature went down to 10 above on the night of the 30th, which is the coldest this winter so far. It was 5 below at Cadillac the same night.

POMONA GRANGE TO MEET DECEMBER 9th

Charlevoix County Pomona Grange No. 40 will meet with the Rock Elm Grange Dec. 9th. Meeting will call to order at 8:30.

5:30 p. m. — Pot luck supper.

7:30 p. m. — Speaker, Miss Doris McFeters, Field Worker, National Holiness Missionary Society.

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

Beginning First In Series of "Best Hunting Stories"

The stories entered in the "Hunting Story" Contest will be judged according to numbers and the names of the contestants will not be published until after the winners have been picked in January.

THE BUCK THAT WOULDN'T FALL DEAD

Although many hunting stories are the result of an active imagination, this one is true, and names can be supplied.

A friend of mine belongs to a hunting party that hunts in the Upper Peninsula. One member of the group, a Doctor, couldn't go on opening day, but followed a couple of days later.

While driving north, he saw a stuffed buck in a farmer's front yard. He stopped, and bought the deer for $5.00, and tied it onto his rear bumper.

Arriving at camp after dark, he planted the stuffed buck in a fairly open spot, about 15 rods from the camp buildings.

Early the next morning one of the party went out of the cabin, came running back in, grabbed his rifle, and bounded out again. In a moment three shots rang out, as fast as the guy could fire. When he entered the cabin in about 5 minutes his companions asked him what he was shooting at. Said he saw a buck, but didn't hit him.

Soon another of the party had an early morning call, went out doors, came bounding back, grabbed his rifle, nnd very soon wham! Wham! Wham! went three more shots. When he re-entered the cabin he said he saw a buck, but didn't hit him.

The third member of the party said, "I'm going to take my rifle with me when I go out—and I'll get that buck." His friends heard him shoot twice—and he came back empty handed.

The three remaining members of the group started ribbing the early risers for their poor marksmanship and all three picked up their guns and went out to see what all the fuss was about.

After a shot apiece, they saw the joke.

AND DID THE DOCTOR EVER HAVE FUN! ! ! !

I am glad that the local paper gave me this chance to show the good people that even fun can be carried too far, especially when it comes right home.

Of course some of the oldsters must have fun, but why at hunting season time and on a brother nimrod that was trying to go straight.

The circumstances were this: The truck left Rogers Ranch (amalgamated) with eleven deer and were supposed to come to my house for distribution at eleven o'clock. Well, a few minutes after eleven the telephone rang and a few minutes later a brother nimrod came to the door and reported that the truckers were lost, strayed or had stolen the whole shebang and they had the state troopers after them. The fact was that the truck was already there, but at a neighboring hunter's house.

You know this just the orthodox thing to do but after I give you a little of the dual personalities that these men are living-you could truthfully say that it might be worse.

There are some good guys in this outfit and some not too good. And next year there is going to be a curtain through the camp from east to west and the goats are going to take the north side and us sheep the south.

You will note that I said Roger's Ranch (amalgamated) that is because everything is so mixed up. Even S. R., the boss, puts a little syrup in his pancakes before he cooks them and quite a little after.

The cook H. W. puts pepper (too much) on the eggs. D. B., the swamp angel, puts onion or garlic in the venison roast. Benny puts a little bug juice in his orange juice and dumplings in his saurkraut. In fact, Van, the new secretary from Benton Harbor, walked in one day while the kraut was cooking, took a sniff or two and began to draw up plans for moving in one of the other buildings.

A. R., the accurate pot splitter with the extra nickel always going to high man, could be on our side, but he won't, he's bound to be on the opposite side.

H. S., the famous cheese connoiseur, keeps good as far as mortal combat is concerned, but is very bad on verbal confusion. As a general thing is on the short end in 728.

Imagine D. B., the Swamp Angel, down on one knee facing the big brown eyes of a last year's doe and saying, "I'll miss you if I possibly can, Minnie." But he couldn't.

Or R. W. from Ida getting the first buck with a cane in one hand and a newspaper in the other. He might have gotten some help from L. R. or the Co-op man from Ida. You figure that one out.

I won't forget big Bill T. from Benton Harbor, the apple man, who got the first buck. Scared him so badly that he ran into a tree and broke his neck. Wonderful guy and on our side.

V. W. the local boy who kills deer eleven and one-half months of the year and studies the two weeks of hunting season. Our side.

Mike Something and Something Guse from Benton Harbor, the truckers and hauler outers, are definitely on the north side with the goats.

Don't forget R. S., the boy scout with the shot gun who got

Wm. Richardson Local Resident Passes Nov. 26th

William W. Richardson was born May 28, 1871 in Wilson Township, Charlevoix County, the son of the late Samuel and Elizabeth Richardson, for whom the Richardson Hill was named, and passed away at Grandvue Hospital, Wednesday, Nov. 26, 1952, after an illness of several months from a heart ailment.

He lived in this community his entire life and was an active member of the local Presbyterian Church for 51 years. He operated a grocery store in East Jordan for many years.

In 1897 he was united in marriage to Mrs. Bertha Simmons of East Jordan, who passed away on Nov. 15, 1914. On Dec. 21, 1916, he was married to Miss Minnie Freiberg of East Jordan. Two sons, Albert and Raymond were born to this union.

Surviving is the widow, Minnie, and two sons, Albert Richardson of Descan, Calif., and Raymond Richardson of Detroit; a step-son, Harry Simmons of East Jordan, and a step-daughter, Mrs. Flora Tape of Marquette, and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m., Saturday, Nov. 29th, from the First Presbyterian Church of East Jordan, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Edward O. DeHaven. Bearers were: Burl Braman, William Porter, Elmer Hott and Gregory Boswell. Interment at Sunset Hill Cemetery.

Those from a distance at the funeral were:— Mrs. Martha Overholt and Raymond Richardson, Detroit; Albert Richardson, Descan, Calif.; Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Tape, Marquette; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Priebe and Mrs. Leona Friend, Petoskey; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reidel, Boyne City.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Davis and sons, Robert and Clair returned to Detroit Sunday, after spending the weekend with her mother Mrs. Anthony Kenny and other relatives.

Charlevoix Goes All Dial In Ceremony Thursday, Dec. 4

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Nachazel of 808 Mill St. announce the engagement of their daughter, Jo Anne Marie, to Russell James Hofman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Hofman of Atwood and Detroit.

No wedding date has been set.

Charlevoix, Dec. 4 — As we went to press this week, the Michigan Bell Telephone Company was running last-minute tests on the dial equipment which will serve telephone users here after 1 p. m. today.

Built and installed, costing nearly $340,000, the new system was to be inaugurated today at a brief luncheon ceremony at Heering's, attended by business and civic leaders and Michigan Bell officials.

Mayor John Knight was to press a button at exactly 1 p. m. which would signal workmen to cut the old manual office out of service and start dial switches buzzing in the new central office on State Street.

First call over the new dial facilities was to be placed by Mayor Knight to East Jordan's Mayor Leo Sommerville.

C. L. Johnson, manager here for Michigan Bell, was to act as master of ceremonies at the inaugural ceremony.

Johnson cautioned all subscribers who call Charlevoix numbers to be sure to check their new directories before placing a call. New numbers, bearing the office name, LIberty—followed by five numerals—followed by five numerals—have been assigned Charlevoix customers, Johnson said. In calling Charlevoix numbers, he said, it will be necessary for Boyne City, East Jordan, and Petoskey customers to dial the complete telephone number—including the first two letters of the office name.

To reach Charlevoix numbers not listed in the book, East Jordan customers should dial "O" to reach the information operator, the manager said.

Donald Cutler, East Jordan sophomore, was among the forty-one football letterwinners at Michigan State College this fall, as head coach Clarence "Biggie" Munn made known his monogram winners early last week.

This is quite an honor for an East Jordan lad, who but three short years ago spearheaded the "Red Devils" to its second co-championship in a row in the Northern Michigan Class C Conference.

Cutler's feat of winning an "S" at Michigan State this fall is really something to be proud of; for Michigan State is rated the No. 1 football team in the nation. So it's hats off to Don Cutler this week and may he continue his success with the Spartans during the '53 and '54 seasons.

47 Yr. Old Man Murdered Sunday Night At Boyne City

A warrant charging Floyd Rice, 61, of Ferndale, with murder in the fatal shooting of Clyde Hughes, 47, also of Ferndale, late Sunday night in Boyne City, was issued at Charlevoix Monday afternoon by Prosecuting Attorney C. M. Bice.

Rice was picked up by state police four hours after the murder, driving near Grayling. He admitted shooting the Ferndale contractor, a deer-hunting companion and good friend, but said he fired in self-defense, troopers erported.

Monday afternoon Rice was brought to Charlevoix county jail at Charlevoix to await arraignment, which, according to Bice, will be set later.

Hughes was fatally wounded about 9:40 p. m. by a rifle bullet that entered his left shoulder and passed through his body, emerging on the right side. He was found dying in front of the home of Rice's mother-in-law, Mrs. Mabel Gill, by Mrs. Gill and Rice's wife, Pat

Hear Shot, Horn

The two women told police they heard a shot shortly after Hughes had left the Gill home "to check up" on the pickup truck in which Rice and Hughes had driven to Boyne City last Thursday. They said they heard the truck horn blow shortly after the shot and rushed outside to find Hughes lying beside the truck.

Mrs. Rice told the police Hughes gasped out:

"Oh, Pat, he shot me."

He died shortly afterward.

Meanwhile state police threw up roadblocks throughout the north state area.

Nabbed by Troopers

At 1:38 a. m. Monday two trooperrs from the Houghton Lake state police post picked up Rice driving his wife's car near Grayling. State police at Gaylord, where Rice was taken, said he admitted the shooting when apprehended.

Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Gill said on Monday that Rice and Hughes had been deer hunting together Sunday morning and returned to the Gill house for lunch. They said the two men seemed friendly at lunch and that afterward Mr. and Mrs. Rice and Hughes went to a Boyne City tavern where they spent most of the afternoon.

Police quoted Rice as saying Hughes had been overly attentive to Mrs. Rice. Rice told them he fired in self defense, thinking that Hughes was going to the truck to get a rifle to shoot him, the officers said.

Mr. Rice was well known in East Jordan, having been married to an East Jordan girl several years ago, and later divorced.

Dr. John F. Thaden MSC Prof. Predicts Public School Crisis

A Michigan State College sociologist has predicted a 37 percent increase in the already bulging Michigan public school enrollments during the next five years.

Dr. Jorn F. Thaden, population expert of the Michigan State department of sociology and anthropology, said that a record total of 172,451 babies were born last year in Michigan. This total 12,000 more than in 1950, will be reflected in further increases in public school enrollments beginning with kindergarten in 1956.

Enrollments in the Michigan public schools will continue to rise rapidly for many years and are expected to reach 1,465,000 by the fall term in 1956, Dr. Thaden said. This is 37 percent higher than the seam-splitting enrollment of 1,067,434 recorded in the spring of 1951.

This potential increase points to an immediate need of about 13,000 new public school classrooms and many additional teachers, the Michigan State sciologist added.

Dr. Thaden warned that this is not a temporary situation. He said that Michigan's public school enrollment will probably remain over the 1,500,000 mark for many years.

The rapidly growing suburban areas will probably be hit the hardest by the need for new classrooms and teachers.

Community Christmas Program Is Getting Underway

HAVE YOU SENT IN YOUR DONATION OR CONTRIBUTION?

Plans for the Community Christmas program are getting off to a good start with donations beginning to come in. Community Service Chairman for the Legion Auxiliary Unit 227, Peg Thomas, who has charge of this program, would like the people of the Community to know how the money and other donations are acquired.

Donations for the Community Christmas to date: Community Chest, $100.00; Past Matron's O. E. S., $3.00; Legion Auxiliary (Box Social), $49.00; Kate Stinchcomb, new dress for small girl. The Study Club has pledged to give mittens.

If any organization or group wishes to participate in this program either by donations of girl's dresses, toys, books, etc, just contact Peggy Thomas so that credit may be given the group. There are many dolls that will have to be dressed. This is a part of the program that has been carried out for the past few years and the women of East Jordan have responded splendidly in the past. The dolls have always looked so nice, each dressed differently and any little girl who ever received one should have been very proud and happy to have such a lovely dressed baby for her very own. The Auxiliary is still asking for more usable toys. These must be in soon for repairs if they are needed.

Don't forget the Auxiliary Chicken Supper to raise money for this program, Wednesday, December 17. Come and bring your family. Tickets are now on sale for this supper and may be purchased from Edna Wilkins or may be bought at the door.

Next Auxiliary meeting is on Tuesday, Dec. 9th, at the Legion Home. Be sure and attend.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear wife, mother and grandmother, Lillian Rose Moore, who passed away two years ago today, Dec. 4, 1950.

The world may change from year to year
And friends from day to day,
But never will those we loved
From memory pass away.

As we loved her, so we miss her,
In our memory she is near.
Loved, remembered, longed for always,
Bringing many a silent tear.

Her life is a beautiful memory,
Her absence a silent grief.
She sleeps in God's beautiful garden,
In the sunshine of perfect peace.

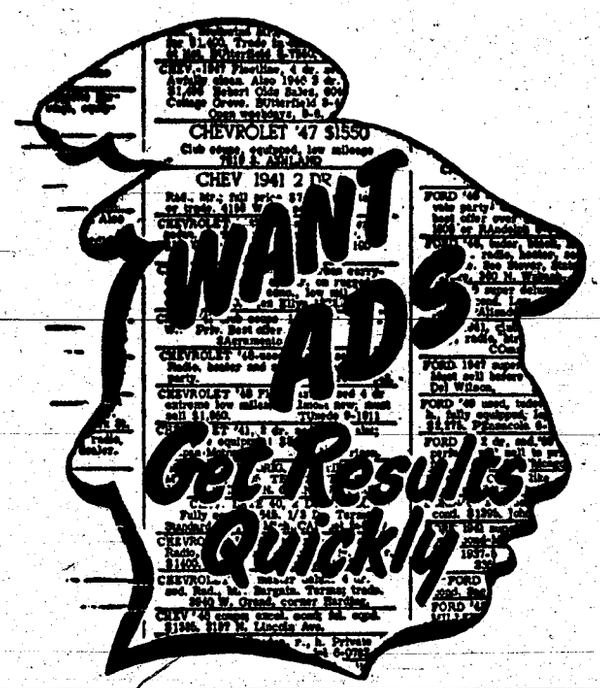

Sadly missed by
Fred Moore, children and grandchildren.

Best Hunting Story

his deer first like nothing and dragged a lot in besides.

Then comes the cream of the flock, the Tucker boys, one from Boyne, the other other from Lansing. They could enter any kind of a contest, beauty, popularity or shooting match, only that the boy from Boyne should learn to miss once in a while. He should take some lessons from Tim, another Boyne City prospect that we are sure will make good. All on our side.

Now this Erber from Charlevoix is going to get one more chance but must quit talking about wing shots on deer and actually shooting one out of a tree that had a piece of rope on its nose. Or telling about the doe that he saw trying to teach the fawn how to walk a wire fence so as not to leave tracks. Or the buck that he tracked for half a day and came to where it had slept the night before. It had been walking backward.

He is a very nice boy and I hope he sees the error of his ways and be one of our side next year. However being sent out after two big bottles of syrup and one little bottle of snakebite and coming back with just the reverse wasn't too hot.

Also early-to-bed and early-to-rise Baker from Frankfurt was on our side.

Honorable mention must be given Rouish, the Lansing attorney who was absent, having a case against a little Irishman from Alpena who they claimed had taken 11½ cords of poplar wood. He didn't know whether to send him to prison or to an asylum.

And the last day the boss had us surround about 10 miles of territory and drive them in for the next year.

Before I got through writing this I weakened some and think maybe I will go back and find out for sure, maybe I was the blacksheep.

Dear Editor:

I wish to enter your "Best Hunting Story" contest if I may. I have experienced something unusual as follows, in my deer hunting.

Last year I went hunting in the hills south-west of my home here in Jordan Twp. the 4th day of the season. Toward morning that day fresh tracking snow had fallen, so when I came to a fresh deer track I had good hopes a deer was at the end of it, and sure enough after following the track very quietly over a couple of hills and along a hogback, I suddenly saw a pair of ear tips about 50 yards away behind a snowcovered windfall. My first thought was, I took the safety off my Savage, if I see horns by those ears I'll have to shoot, but where? And sure enough the young buck moved his head and I saw those six-inch spikes. I shot through that windfall. To shorten this story, I got him; And here comes the unusual part of this tale and it is the truth:—

This year I hunted almost all of the season, missing a fine buck the 19th and a doe on the 28th, which shows what a bum shot I am. On the 29th I was hunting in the wooded hills south of my home when to my right about 40 yards away I noticed a movement behind a snowy stump and there, believe it or not, were, yes you guessed it, a pair of ears of a deer showing up as clear as possible, on this sunny day. I hesitated for only a glance beyond those ears to see if the bullet travel would have a good chance of being stopped by something in this thickly settled neighborhood, then I let fly through that rotten stump below those ears and I'm now enjoying some very delicious venison.

Now I wish to speak of two things. First, I was very sure those were deer ears and not a cows, or God forbid, a hunter's ears. Second, one thing we must always remember in this thickly settled area, when hunting with these high powered rifles, and that is to watch our line of fire and we must remember that these guns have a killing range of a very great distance beyond the target they are aimed at.

For just one illustration of the power of a bullet from one of these high power rifles, when I shot the above deer that bullet traveled through the rotten stump, through the deer, smashing most of its right side ribs and went on to hit a hard maple sapling about 3 inches thick cutting it in two. Incidently the deer died from this shot almost instantly and did not suffer.

Now to those of you who were lucky this deer season I wish happy eating. And to those who missed are these words of consolation. Next year those deer you missed will be just as fat and a lot bigger targets.

Kindergarten — Helen Witte

For Thanksgiving we had the story of the "First Thanksgiving."

We learned Thankegiving songs and a poem.

We made turkeys from potatoes.

We made a list of things for which we are thankful.

First Grade — Marion Brooks

Thanksgiving is over and all the November things taken down. We enjoyed our short vacation and are now ready to begin December, looking forward to Christmas and our program which is to be on December 18th.

Several are absent on account of sickness.

Those who did not miss during our last sixweeks period are: Linda Bunday, Nina Cosier, Shirley Crawford, Dick Eichler, Jim Goebel, Catherine Hitchcock, Joe Korton, Douglas Lilac, Terry Lord, Susan Prebble, Charles Reed, Donald Reich and Frances Wilson.

Second Grade — Agnes Johnston

We have begun to decorate our room for Christmas. It will be fun planning and carrying out the Christmas decorations for our room. We are getting started on Mother's gift first, after which we have plans for making a gift for father.

We learned from Jolly Jingo how to save paper when we are making our Christmas tree trimmings. We talked about the ways we might save school materials.

We have a new December calendar in our room. We marked off important dates we wanted to remember this month. We found that Sharyn Sinclair, Linda Healey, Marlynn Hughes and Carol Fales have birthdays in December.

We have fun working in our new number workbooks. We are learning how to subtract.

Wednesday, we took home our second spelling booklet. Some of us had five perfect lessons.

Many of us showed improvement on our report cards over the first marking period. We are going to see if the girls or boys will be first to return their report cards.

Visitors to our room last Friday were Carol's mother, Mrs. Bowen, and Linda's mother, Mrs. Sommerville.

We are glad to see Marlynn Hughes back in school.

There were fifteen children in our room who were neither absent nor tardy the second six weeks period of school. They are: Carol Bowen, Donald Bowerman, Carol Fales, Sally Gidley, David Griffin, Jerry Holley, Harry Howard, James McClanthan, Patsy Murphy, Marian Pinney, Bruce Shepard, Nancy Steuer, Charlene Sweet, Ella Mae Tousley and Louise Walton.

Try these different sandwich filler combinations: bacon and turkey liver, cheese and carrot, raisin and nut, cheese and walnut, bacon and peanut butter, sliced ham and raisin. A "surprise" in the lunch pail these winter days will be a treat for your family.

Colostrum in new milk gives a calf the vitamin A it lacks at birth.

Third Grade—Adeline Bowerman

Reva Mayhew entertained several friends at her home on Monday in honor of her ninth birthday.

We think our attendance record for the second marking period was pretty good. Fourteen of our thirty seven had perfect attendance and twelve more had only one day against their record.

The following people got at least 145 of the 152 spelling words right in a review test last week: Paula Burull (perfect score), Mary Boring, Nancy Lehrbass, Jane Graham, Chris Schroeder, Louise Bader, Raymond Fisher, Josephine Nemecek, Jean Graham, Suzanne Malpass and Susan Jeffrey.

We were interested to hear that Mrs. Bowerman had seen one of our 1st grade classmates, Sandra Gibbard, in a restaurant in Harrison. She is going to school in Ann Arbor.

Editorial

How does a town go about getting a new industry?

Here's what we heard about one of our neighboring towns.

Seems like several years ago a man was motoring through northern Michigan and, by chance, stopped in at a certain gas station in this town. While his tank was being filled, the owner of the gas station bustled about cleaning the windshield, putting air into the tires, etc. All the while this gas station owner was telling his customer about what a fine town they had, how nice the people were, and how good the fishing, hunting, winter sports and living conditions were.

The fellow left this town, but never forgot that "sales talk" that was given him so convincingly by this gas station owner.

In the past few months this same fellow was in the position of having to move his factory to a different site. Naturally his thoughts drifted back to this gas station owner's home town, and he said, "If this man is so thoroughly sold on his home town as he sounded, guess I'll look into the matter."

The rest is now history. The man came to our neighboring town, liked what he found, local citizens and the local bank cooperated and raised funds to build this man a building that he could buy back at reasonable terms.

East Jordan already has several good industries.

Several empty buildings in the business district are good evidence to the fact that we need more.

What are YOU doing to make East Jordan an attractive place for strangers when they come to your place of business?

Do they say, next year, "Let's wait until we get to that gas station at East Jordan where that friendly fellow talked to us last year?"

Or do the kids say to dad, "Aw dad, let's wait until we get to East Jordan to eat where we had so much fun and got those chicken drumsticks at that restaurant last year?"

The same applies to every business place in East Jordan, even you and I.

We're all in the same boat, either we'll all survive or we'll all drown together.

It's time to make a joint endeavor for survival.

When do WE start?

Your home-town newspaper, the Charlevoix County Herald, can't do it alone.

You can't do it alone.

WE can do it.

Mich. State Ferries Set New Record

The Michigan State Ferries set three new records during the five days preceding the opening of the deer-hunting season, according to Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler, who personally directed operations of the five state vessels in service and the dock crews at Mackinaw City.

The first record was for total number of northbound vehicles carried on the State Ferries. During the 5-day, pre-season period, a total of 19,500 cars were handled, compared to 15,779 in the corresponding period a year ago, an increase of 23½ percent.

The largest single day's business in the history of the State Ferries was recorded in the 24-hour period from midnight Wednesday, November 12, to midnight on Thursday, November 13, with 6,755 vehicles crossing the Straits during this time, an increase of 1,112 over the previous heaviest traffic for one day, on July 4, 1952.

The third record established concerned the speed with which the hunter traffic was moved on the boats and across the Straits. At no time was there a line-up on the highway near the Mackinaw City docks. With the single exception of a period of a few hours during the peak traffic on the record day, the hunters' cars were loaded on the State Ferries as fast as they arrived at the docks. In past years, there have been frequent line-ups for miles along the highways entering Mackinaw City.

Addition of the big icebreaker ferry, the Vacationland, to the State Ferry fleet has played a big part in the faster ferry service. The Vacationland carries 150 vehicles per load and is faster than any of the other four state boats in the Straits fleet. Construction of new docks a St. Ignace, 1½ miles south of the old docks, has also improved service by reducing the round trip of the boats by 3 miles and approximately 15 minutes time, making possible considerable more trips per day.

Hunter Fined $115 For Illegal Hunting In Michigan

Cooperation of conservation enforcement officers in Indiana and Michigan put an end to one violator's activity recently, the conservation department reports.

The story began to unfold when an alert Indiana officer found a deer in a locker-plant in his area, bearing a Michigan resident tag. The deer belonged to an Indiana resident.

He notified Michigan authorities, who began a routine check. They found the man had purchased a resident hunting license. Checking further, they found he also purchased a half-year Michigan auto license and a Michigan operator's license to make the whole story of his Michigan residence look real.

Finally, Indiana reported the violator was back in Michigan, trying for another deer—having used his wife's license for the first one. Apprehended, he was charged with hunting illegally on a Michigan resident license and with removing a deer from the state illegally.

The violator paid fines and costs totalling $115, had hunting privileges revoked for three years and was given seven days in jail to mull over the whole affair.

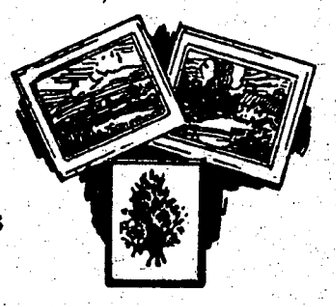

Indiana and Michigan cooperated on the case as acting members of the Association of Midwestern Fish and Game Law Enforcement Officers.

The Servicemens' LETTER

Hi Fellas:

The Christmas season is just around the corner. In fact it's not too far around, either. I had mute evidence of that fact this last week when I received my first Christmas card from an overseas serviceman. Clare Loomis took that means of notifying us that he is leaving North Africa soon and will be here in East Jordan around the 27th or 28th of Dec. His address after December 12th will be: Clare A. Loomis, CN, MCB No. 8, Co A, Davisville, Rhode Island.

Larry Whiteford has changed training at Fort Bliss, Texas. Here's his new address: Pvt Lawrence H. Whiteford, US 55 288 501, Btry A, 4th Trn Bn, AAA, Fort Bliss, Texas.

Korean veteran Alfred Hosler is still with the 167th Infantry Division at Camp Atterbury, Ind.

but has recently been moved from Company G to Hq & Hq Co.

Bill Anderson has finished his Air Force Basic at Lackland and has now moved to Biggs AFB in Texas. His new address is: A|3C William C. Anderson, 97th Fld Maint Sqdn, Biggs AFB, Texas. As soon as your duties are assigned, drop us a line Bill and give all of us the low down.

Dave Wade, who suddenly was called for overseas duty after being assigned to Marine AB at El Toro, is now on training maneuvers in Nev. in preparation to being shipped. His address is: Pfc David S. Wade, 122-81-74, VMR 253, MAC 25, USMCAS, El Toro, Santa Ana, California, (Notice-28 Repl Draft). That last part in parentheses is a vital part of the address.

Ed Drapeau's mother called me tonight and informed me that Ed was on his way from Sacramento, California to Laredo, Texas. As soon as we get his new address we'll give it to you.

Here's a letter from Earl Hart over in Swhinfort, Germany. "I guess it is about time to send you my address so that I can start getting the paper again. There might be someone from E. J. close by that I could drop in on. The weather hasn't been so good over here lately. It rains just about every day and has been cold, but it hasn't snowed much. I suppose everyone up there is getting ready to go deer hunting. I know I would be if I were home.

'I am in S-4, supply now. It should be a good deal, that is if anything in the army is a good deal."

Thanks for the letter, Earl. I hope your quarters are good and warm. Germany can get pretty nasty in the winter time. If any of you men get near Swhinfort you can find Earl with the Service Batry of the 7th FA Bn.

Last week it was reported to me that Dave Vallance was moving to Kansas. I guess he thought he was going up there but at the last moment he was left behind so he is still at his old address at the base at Lackland.

Here's a letter from a newcomer to our mailing list who appears to be taking the army life in stride the same way he did the hardware business at home. Al Chanda writes, "Well, the Army isn't bad after all. We got to Fort Knox last night at 8:00 and actually got to bed before 12:00. We had an address by the Co. Commander and then a hot supper. We have today off and have a turkey dinner. Last Sunday we had chicken.

'I got separated from by buddies but you can pick up some more almost as fast as you lose the old ones. It's cold down here nights but the sun comes up during the day and it warms up.

'I passed my OCS test but I'm not taking the course because it means at least 4 years and they can hold you indefinitely. After this week we start basic and by what the CO said it won't be fun. However, he said it was all up-to us, that we could make it decent or real tough depending on us.

"Well, Jake,, it's 11:40 and chow formation will be called in 5 minutes so I'll sign off for now. Say Hello to everyone in E. J. for me. My address is: Pvt. Albert G. Chanda, US 55 317 006, Btry B, 54th Armd F A Bn, CCA, 3rd Armd Div, Fort Knox, Kentucky."

Take a good grip on those bars in that obstacle course, Al.

Another recruit for the army is Donald H. Graham. He has just landed in Fort Riley, Kansas, and here's his address: Pvt Donald H. Graham, RA 16 427 441. Co I, 86th Inf Regt, 10th Inf Div., Fort Riley, Kansas.

Brock Peacock left here the first week in November bound for Europe and here's his new address already: Pfc Brock G. Peacock, RA 16 355 695, 334th C|R Co, APO 743, c|o PM, New York, N. Y. How about it, Brock, are your duties to secret to write about?

A letter here from Don Danforth fixes his location as Suwon, Korea. He writes, "I guess I should have written a long time ago but I didn't for some reason or other. They have me over here in Korea at last. I am with the 802nd E. A. Bn, which is with the Air Force We are at a little town called Suwon about 26 miles from Souel and around 55 miles from the front lines. The 8th Fighter Bomber Group is at this base.

'I rode on about everything the army has on my way over. here to Korea— by Air, by Water (I got a little sick on the Ocean. We were out there 12 days), and by land in trucks and trains and even a little ways in a jeep. So you see they used a lot of transport to get me to just this one place.

'I am writing this letter in the morning about 6:00. I go to work at 7:00 and work until 5:30, 7 days a week. The food is just as good as in the states. The only thing I don't like is that we live in tents. About 8 men to a tent. We have two oil stoves in each tent but they don't keep them warm when it gets cold.

'I work down in the motor pool as a mechanic. I work on 4-ton jobs down to the little jeeps.

'Boy but it is good to get the paper from E. J. It takes about 7 days for it to get here. Got to quit now, time to go to work." Don's addess is: Pvt Donald Danforth, RA 16 405 441, Co C, 802-nd E. A. B., APO 970, c|o PM, San Francisco, Calif

The deer hunting season is over for another year They sure took a lot of does out of the woods those last three days. You noticed that I said "they", didn't you.

So Long, "Jake" Snyder.

Record Ore Shipments Cut Expected Shortages

Though the two-month long steel strike this summer threatened to wreck American production for 1952, record iron ore shipments since the strike already have cut expected shortages by mor than one-third, the conservation department reports.

The strike's impact on the U. S. and Canadian economies probably will be felt for years, but ore shipments through the Great Lakes have been rolling along full tilt since the strike ended July 25.

In August, the fleet of nearly 300 ore boats hauled about 14.3 million tons, a million more than in August, 1951. In September, the fleet set an all-time record for that month, hauling a whopping 14.4 million tons, more by nearly two million tons than the previous September. Part of this increase was carried by new ore boats, added to the fleet since 1951.

The Great Lakes area produces about 97 million tons of ore each year from the big mining district around the western end of Lake Superior. When the strike ended this year, ore production was 22 million tone behind 1951. That deficit has since been cut to about 15 million, and may be hacked to 13 million before the shipping season ends in December.

About 75 million tons have been shipped thus far this year; at this date last year, 90 million tons had been shipped.

Weather can play an important part in cutting the ore deficit still further. Generally the shipping season runs from mid-April to early or mid-December; but mild weather this fall may allow ore boats more operation during December than normally.

GRAND PRIZE WINNER
EIGHTH NATIONAL TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

December's safety message to school children throughout the state is a warning against turning cars. A quick look, if followed by a dash into the street, isn't enough to protect youngsters from cars that come around corners "from nowhere." To help children remember this danger, Automobile Club of Michigan has sent 10,500 full size copies of this poster to elementary schools in Michigan.

The young feller who keeps watchin' the clock is likely to stay just one of the hands.

Jim had always dreamed of owning his own machine shop.

He saved his money, went out on his own, now has the town's most successful shop.

But what had fire insurance to do with it?

Without insurance he could not have borrowed money to buy a building . . . nor bought machinery on such liberal credit terms.

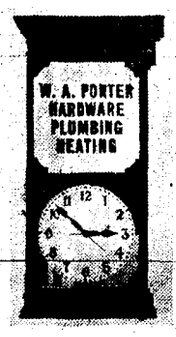

That's how fire insurance helps every businessman, even without a fire. Should fire strike, it supplies money immediately to replace what is destroyed. It helps maintain the business freedom that Jim and millions like him enjoy . . . a way of life which has made and will keep this country strong.

Your fire insurance rate per $100 protection is as much as 30% lower today than it was 30 years ago. Write for booklet giving the facts and telling other advantages of stock company fire insurance.

VOLUME 56 | SEVEN CENTS | EAST JORDAN, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1952 | SEVEN CENTS | NUMBER 49

E. J. H. S. Football Team Member Named by Detroit Newspaper To All State Class C Eleven

For the second year in a row, East Jordan High School was honored by a Detroit newspaper in having a member of its football team named to the All State Class C eleven.

The Detroit Times Sunday named James Shepard, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Shepard and honorary captain of this year's "Red Devils" to a tackle post on its 1952 All State Class C eleven. Shepard, 160 lb. senior and three time letterwinner with the Jordanites, earlier in the week had been named to the All Northwestern Michigan school-boy eleven by the coaches of this issue. The latter selection was at a guard position.

Last year it was Donald Whiteford who gained all state honors by being named to the Detroit Free Press All State Class C team. This fall Whiteford participated with the strong Michigan State Freshman squad and last week was named as one of the outstanding boys on the 104 man Frosh squad coached by Dan Devine, one time East Jordan High School mentor.

Three members of this year's "Red Devils" eleven in addition to Shepard were given honorable mention on the Detroit Times 1952 All State Class C team; they were: Keith Evans, Floyd Detloff and Lawrence Chanda.

"Red Devils" Lose To Class B Team Alpena Catholic Cen.

Alpena Catholic Central, rated as one of the top Class B basketball quintets in the state, lived up to its advanced publicity Tuesday night as they easily outpointed an inexperienced East Jordan High School five, 65 to 30, on the Alpena court.

Winners of 15 out of 16 games during regular season play last winter and quarter-finalists in Class B tournament play, the "Hurons" with a veteran aggregation back dominated play clear through the contest and from the opening whistle, the "Red Devils" were clearly outclassed.

Ayotte, 6'4" pivotman and certainly one of the state's top school-boy cagers, paced the winners with 24 points and was a tower of strength on defense. Warren Frank topped the local scoring effort with 3 field goals and as many free throws for 9 points.

Coach Gayle Saxton's quintet will be hosts to the Pellston "Hornets" here, tomorrow (Friday) night as both teams open conference play. The Reserve Teams will clash in the first game Friday night in a tussel slated to get underway at 7:15 p. m.

Meeting at the South Arm Grange Friday

The South Arm Grange will meet this Friday evening, Dec. 5, at 9:00 p. m. at their hall for a special meeting to decide on their Christmas party and about raising money for the treats. Pot luck lunch at close of meeting.

The Grange wishes to thank all of the Legion and Auxiliary members for the help and support they gave the grange for the benefit bingo for the Bob Graham family Oct. 25th.

November Weather

The sun-bathers didn't have it so good in November, as there were only 4 clear days, with 26 cloudy or partly cloudy. With the exception of 6 days drizzling rain during the latter part of the month, the weather wasn't too bad, except it was too warm for the deer hunters. This made business for the locker plants all over the north.

The average Max. Temp. was 46.4 degrees and the average Min. Tmp. was 32.9, for a mean of 39.6, which is 3.2 degrees above the 25 year average.

The percipitation amounted to 3.71 inches, which was .08 inches above average. Most of this was in the form of snow during the last 4 days of the month. An inch of dry snow contains about .04 inches of water, and heavy wet snow contains from 8 to 12|100 inch.

The temperature went down to 10 above on the night of the 30th, which is the coldest this winter so far. It was 5 below at Cadillac the same night.

Beginning First In Series of "Best Hunting Stories"

The stories entered in the "Hunting Story" Contest will be judged according to numbers and the names of the contestants will not be published until after the winners have been picked in January.

THE BUCK THAT WOULDN'T FALL DEAD

Although many hunting stories are the result of an active imagination, this one is true, and names can be supplied.

A friend of mine belongs to a hunting party that hunts in the Upper Peninsula. One member of the group, a Doctor, couldn't go on opening day, but followed a couple of days later.

While driving north, he saw a stuffed buck in a farmer's front yard. He stopped, and bought the deer for $5.00, and tied it onto his rear bumper.

Arriving at camp after dark, he planted the stuffed buck in a fairly open spot, about 15 rods from the camp buildings.

Early the next morning one of the party went out of the cabin, came running back in, grabbed his rifle, and bounded out again. In a moment three shots rang out, as fast as the guy could fire. When he entered the cabin in about 5 minutes his companions asked him what he was shooting at. Said he saw a buck, but didn't hit him.

Soon another of the party had an early morning call, went out doors, came bounding back, grabbed his rifle, nnd very soon, wham! Wham! Wham! went three more shots. When he re-entered the cabin he said he saw a buck, but didn't hit him.

The third member of the party said, "I'm going to take my rifle with me when I go out—and I'll get that buck." His friends heard him shoot twice—and he came back empty handed.

The three remaining members of the group started ribbing the early risers for their poor marksmanship and all three picked up their guns and went out to see what all the fuss was about.

After a shot apiece, they saw the joke.

AND DID THE DOCTOR EVER HAVE FUN!.!!!

(2)

I am glad that the local paper gave me this chance to show the good people that even fun can be carried too far, especially when it comes right home.

Of course some of the oldsters must have fun, but why at hunting season time and on a brother nimrod that was trying to go straight.

The circumstances were this: The truck left Rogers Ranch (amalgamated) with eleven deer and were supposed to come to my house for distribution at eleven o'clock. Well, a few minutes after eleven the telephone rang and a few minutes later a brother nimrod came to the door and reported that the truckers were lost, strayed or had stolen the whole shebang and they had the state troopers after them. The fact was that the truck was already there, but at a neighboring hunter's house.

You know this just the orthodox thing to do but after I give you a little of the dual personalities that these men are living-you could truthfully say that it might be worse.

There are some good guys in this outfit and some not too good. And next year there is going to be a curtain through the camp from east to west and the goats are going to take the north side and us sheep the south.

You will note that I said Roger's Ranch (amalgamated) that is because everything is so mixed up. Even S. R., the boss, puts a little syrup in his pancakes before he cooks them and quite a little after.

The cook H. W. puts pepper (too much) on the eggs. D. B., the swamp angel, puts onion or garlic in the venison roast. Benny puts a little bug juice in his orange juice and dumplings in his saurkraut. In fact, Van, the new secretary from Benton Harbor, walked in one day while the kraut was cooking, took a sniff or two and began to draw up plans for moving in one of the other buildings.

A. R., the accurate pot splitter with the extra nickel always going to high man, could be on our side but he won't, he's bound to be on the opposite side.

H. S., the famous cheese connoiseur, keeps good as far as mortal combat is concerned, but is very bad on verbal confusion. As a general thing is on the short end in 728.

Imagine D. B., the Swamp Angel, down on one knee facing the big brown eyes of a last year's doe and saying, "I'll miss you if I possibly can, Minnie." But he couldn't.

Or R. W. from Ida getting the first buck with a cane in one hand and a newspaper in the other. He might have gotten some help from L. R. or the Co-op man from Ida. You figure that one out.

I won't forget big Bill T. from Benton Harbor, the apple man, who got the first buck. Scared him so badly that he ran into a tree and broke his neck. Wonderful guy and on our side.

V. W. the local boy who kills deer eleven and one-half months of the year and studies the two weeks of hunting season. Our side.

Mike Something and Something Guse from Benton Harbor, the truckers and hauler outers, are definitely on the north side with the goats.

Don't forget R. S., the boy scout with the shot gun who got

Charlevoix Goes All Dial In Ceremony Thursday, Dec. 4

Charlevoix, Dec. 4 — As we went to press this week, the Michigan Bell Telephone Company was running last-minute tests on the dial equipment which will serve telephone users here after 1 p. m. today.

Built and installed, costing nearly $340,000, the new system was to be inaugurated today at a brief luncheon ceremony at Heering's, attended by business and civic leaders and Michigan Bell officials.

Mayor John Knight was to press a button at exactly 1 p. m. which would signal workmen to cut the old manual office out of service and start dial switches buzzing in the new central office on State Street.

First call over the new dial facilities was to be placed by Mayor Knight to East Jordan's Mayor Leo Sommerville.

C. L. Johnson, manager here for Michigan Bell, was to act as master of ceremonies at the inaugural ceremony.

Johnson cautioned all subscribers who call Charlevoix numbers to be sure to check their new directories before placing a call. New numbers, bearing the office name, LIberty—followed by five numerals—followed by five numerals—have been assigned Charlevoix customers, Johnson said. In calling Charlevoix numbers, he said, it will be necessary for Boyne City, East Jordan, and Petoskey customers to dial the complete telephone number—including the first two letters of the office name.

To reach Charlevoix numbers not listed in the book, East Jordan customers should dial "O" to reach the information operator, the manager said.

47 Yr. Old Man Murdered Sunday Night At Boyne City

A warrant charging Floyd Rice, 61, of Ferndale, with murder in the fatal shooting of Clyde Hughes, 47, also of Ferndale, late Sunday night in Boyne City, was issued at Charlevoix Monday afternoon by Prosecuting Attorney C. M. Bice.

Rice was picked up by state police four hours after the murder, driving near Grayling. He admitted shooting the Ferndale contractor, a deer-hunting companion and good friend, but said he fired in self-defense, troopers erported.

Monday afternoon Rice was brought to Charlevoix county jail at Charlevoix to await arraignment, which, according to Bice, will be set later.

Hughes was fatally wounded about 9:40 p. m. by a rifle bullet that entered his left shoulder and passed through his body, emerging on the right side. He was found dying in front of the home of Rice's mother-in-law, Mrs. Mabel Gill, by Mrs. Gill and Rice's wife, Pat

Hear Shot, Horn

The two women told police they heard a shot shortly after Hughes had left the Gill home "to check up" on the pickup truck in which Rice and Hughes had driven to Boyne City last Thursday. They said they heard the truck horn blow shortly after the shot and rushed outside to find Hughes lying beside the truck.

Mrs. Rice told the police Hughes gasped out:

"Oh, Pat, he shot me."

He died shortly afterward.

Meanwhile state police threw up roadblocks throughout the north state area.

Nabbed by Troopers

At 1:38 a. m. Monday two trooperrs from the Houghton Lake state police post picked up Rice driving his wife's car near Grayling. State police at Gaylord, where Rice was taken, said he admitted the shooting when apprehended.

Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Gill said on Monday that Rice and Hughes had been deer hunting together Sunday morning and returned to the Gill house for lunch. They said the two men seemed friendly at lunch and that afterward Mr. and Mrs. Rice and Hughes went to a Boyne City tavern where they spent most of the afternoon.

Police quoted Rice as saying Hughes had been overly attentive to Mrs. Rice. Rice told them he fired in self defense, thinking that Hughes was going to the truck to get a rifle to shoot him, the officers said.

Mr. Rice was well known in East Jordan, having been married to an East Jordan girl several years ago, and later divorced.

Dr. John F. Thaden MSC Prof. Predicts Public School Crisis

A Michigan State College sociologist has predicted a 37 percent increase in the already bulging Michigan public school enrollments during the next five years.

Dr. Jorn F. Thaden, population expert of the Michigan State department of sociology and anthropology, said that a record total of 172,451 babies were born last year in Michigan. This total 12,000 more than in 1950, will be reflected in further increases in public school enrollments beginning with kindergarten in 1956.

Enrollments in the Michigan public schools will continue to rise rapidly for many years and are expected to reach 1,465,000 by the fall term in 1956, Dr. Thaden said. This is 37 percent higher than the seam-splitting enrollment of 1,067,434 recorded in the spring of 1951.

This potential increase points to an immediate need of about 13,000 new public school classrooms and many additional teachers, the Michigan State sciologist added.

Dr. Thaden warned that this is not a temporary situation. He said that Michigan's public school enrollment will probably remain over the 1,500,000 mark for many years.

The rapidly growing suburban areas will probably be hit the hardest by the need for new classrooms and teachers.

Community Christmas Program Is Getting Underway

HAVE YOU SENT IN YOUR DONATION OR CONTRIBUTION?

Plans for the Community Christmas program are getting off to a good start with donations beginning to come in. Community Service Chairman for the Legion Auxiliary Unit 227, Peg Thomas, who has charge of this program, would like the people of the Community to know how the money and other donations are acquired.

Donations for the Community Christmas to date: Community Chest, $100.00; Past Matron's O. E. S., $3.00; Legion Auxiliary (Box Social), $49.00; Kate Stinchcomb, new dress for small girl. The Study Club has pledged to give mittens.

If any organization or group wishes to participate in this program either by donations of girl's dresses, toys, books, etc, just contact Peggy Thomas so that credit may be given the group. There are many dolls that will have to be dressed. This is a part of the program that has been carried out for the past few years and the women of East Jordan have responded splendidly in the past. The dolls have always looked so nice, each dressed differently and any little girl who ever received one should have been very proud and happy to have such a lovely dressed baby for her very own. The Auxiliary is still asking for more usable toys. These must be in soon for repairs if they are needed.

Don't forget the Auxiliary Chicken Supper to raise money for this program, Wednesday, December 17. Come and bring your family. Tickets are now on sale for this supper and may be purchased from Edna Wilkins or may be bought at the door.

Next Auxiliary meeting is on Tuesday, Dec. 9th, at the Legion Home. Be sure and attend.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear wife, mother and grandmother, Lillian Rose Moore, who passed away two years ago today, Dec. 4, 1950.

The world may change from year to year
And friends from day to day,
But never will those we loved
From memory pass away.

As we loved her, so we miss her,
In our memory she is near.
Loved, remembered, longed for always,
Bringing many a silent tear.

Her life is a beautiful memory,
Her absence a silent grief.

GAIT TOO FAST

The reason some boys don't follow in their father's footsteps is because the father's gait is too fat for them.

Donald Cutler, East Jordan sophomore, was among the forty-one football letterwinners at Michigan State College this fall, as head coach Clarence "Biggie" Munn made known his monogram winners early last week.

This is quite an honor for an East Jordan lad, who but three short years ago spearheaded the "Red Devils" to its second consecutive championship in a row in the Northern Michigan Class C Conference.

Cutler's feat of winning an "S" at Michigan State this fall is really something to be proud of; for Michigan State is rated the No. 1 football team in the nation. So it's hats off to Don Cutler this week and may he continue his success with the Spartans during the '53 and '54 seasons.

Best Hunting Story

his deer first like nothing and dragged a lot in besides.

Then comes the cream of the flock, the Tucker boys, one from Boyne, the other other from Lansing. They could enter any kind of a contest, beauty, popularity or shooting match, only that the boy from Boyne should learn to miss once in a while. He should take some lessons from Tim, another Boyne City prospect that we are sure will make good. All on our side.

Now this Erber from Charlevoix is going to get one more chance but must quit talking about wing shots on deer and actually shooting one out of a tree that had a piece of rope on its nose. Or telling about the doe that he saw trying to teach the fawn how to walk a wire fence so as not to leave tracks. Or the buck that he tracked for half a day and came to where it had slept the night before. It had been walking backward.

He is a very nice boy and I hope he sees the error of his ways and be one of our side next year. However being sent out after two big bottles of syrup and one little bottle of snakebite and coming back with just the reverse wasn't too hot.

Also early-to-bed and early-to-rise Baker from Frankfurt was on our side.

Honorable mention must be given Rouish, the Lansing attorney who was absent, having a case against a little Irishman from Alpena who they claimed had taken 11½ cords of poplar wood. He didn't know whether to send him to prison or to an asylum.

And the last day the boss had us surround about 10 miles of territory and drive them in for the next year.

Before I got through writing this I weakened some and think maybe I will go back and find out for sure, maybe I was the blacksheep.

Dear Editor:

I wish to enter your "Best Hunting Story" contest if I may. I have experienced something unusual as follows, in my deer hunting.

Last year I went hunting in the hills south-west of my home here in Jordan Twp. the 4th day of the season. Toward morning that day fresh tracking snow had fallen, so when I came to a fresh deer track I had good hopes a deer was at the end of it, and sure enough after following the track very quietly over a couple of hills and along a hogback, I suddenly saw a pair of ear tips about 50 yards away behind a snowcovered windfall. My first thought was, I took the safety off my Savage, if I see horns by those ears I'll have to shoot, but where? And sure enough the young buck moved his head and I saw those six-inch spikes. I shot through that windfall. To shorten this story, I got him; And here comes the unusual part of this tale and it is the truth:—

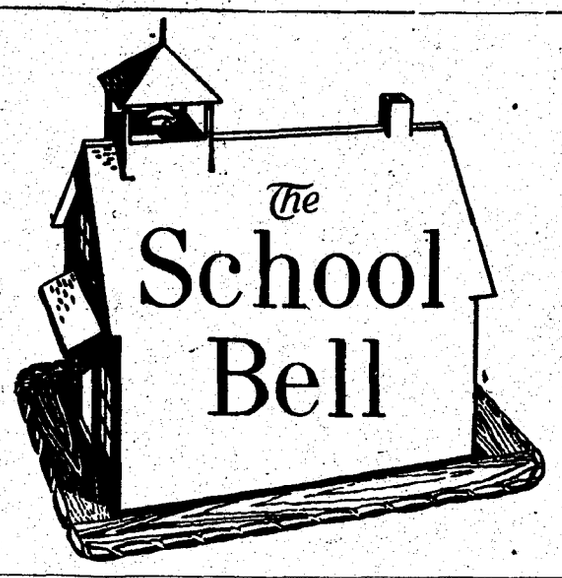

This year I hunted almost all of the season, missing a fine buck the 19th and a doe on the 28th, which shows what a bum shot I am. On the 29th I was hunting in the wooded hills south of my home when to my right about 40 yards away I noticed a movement behind a snowy stump and there, believe it or not, were, yes you guessed it, a pair of ears of a deer showing up as clear as possible, on this sunny day. I hesitated for only a glance beyond those ears to see if the bullet travel would have a good chance of being stopped by something in this thickly settled neighborhood, then I let fly through that rotten stump below those ears and I'm now enjoying some very delicious venison.

Now I wish to speak of two things. First, I was very sure those were deer ears and not a cows, or God forbid, a hunter's ears. Second, one thing we must always remember in this thickly settled area, when hunting with these high powered rifles, and that is to watch our line of fire and we must remember that these guns have a killing range of a very great distance beyond the target they are aimed at.

For just one illustration of the power of a bullet from one of these high power rifles, when I shot the above deer that bullet traveled through the rotten stump, through the deer, smashing most of its right side ribs and went on to hit a hard maple sapling about 3 inches thick cutting it in two. Incidently the deer died from this shot almost instantly and did not suffer.

Now to those of you who were lucky this deer season I wish happy eating. And to those who missed are these words of consolation. Next year those deer you missed will be just as fat and a lot bigger targets.

Kindergarten — Helen Witte

For Thanksgiving we had the story of the "First Thanksgiving."

We learned Thankegiving songs and a poem.

We made turkeys from potatoes.

We made a list of things for which we are thankful.

First Grade — Marion Brooks

Thanksgiving is over and all the November things taken down. We enjoyed our short vacation and are now ready to begin December, looking forward to Christmas and our program which is to be on December 18th.

Several are absent on account of sickness.

Those who did not miss during our last sixweeks period are: Linda Bunday, Nina Cosier, Shirley Crawford, Dick Eichler, Jim Goebel, Catherine Hitchcock, Joe Korton, Douglas Lilac, Terry Lord, Susan Prebble, Charles Reed, Donald Reich and Frances Wilson.

Second Grade — Agnes Johnston

We have begun to decorate our room for Christmas. It will be fun planning and carrying out the Christmas decorations for our room. We are getting started on Mother's gift first, after which we have plans for making a gift for father.

We learned from Jolly Jingo how to save paper when we are making our Christmas tree trimmings. We talked about the ways we might save school materials.

We have a new December calendar in our room. We marked off important dates we wanted to remember this month. We found that Sharyn Sinclair, Linda Healey, Marlynn Hughes and Carol Fales have birthdays in December.

We have fun working in our new number workbooks. We are learning how to subtract.

Wednesday, we took home our second spelling booklet. Some of us had five perfect lessons.

Many of us showed improvement on our report cards over the first marking period. We are going to see if the girls or boys will be first to return their report cards.

Visitors to our room last Friday were Carol's mother, Mrs. Bowen, and Linda's mother, Mrs. Sommerville.

We are glad to see Marlynn Hughes back in school.

There were fifteen children in our room who were neither absnt nor tardy the second six weeks period of school. They are: Carol Bowen, Donald Bowerman, Carol Fales, Sally Gidley, David Griffin, Jerry Holley, Harry Howard, James McClanthan, Patsy Murphy, Marian Pinney, Bruce Shepard, Nancy Steuer, Charlene Sweet, Ella Mae Tousley and Louise Walton.

Try these different sandwich filler combinations: bacon and turkey liver, cheese and carrot, raisin and nut, cheese and walnut, bacon and peanut butter, sliced ham and raisin. A "surprise" in the lunch pail these winter days will be a treat for your family.

Colostrum in new milk gives a calf the vitamin A it lacks at birth.

Third Grade—Adeline Bowerman

Reva Mayhew entertained several friends at her home on Monday in honor of her ninth birthday.

We think our attendance record for the second marking period was pretty good. Fourteen of our thirty seven had perfect attendance and twelve more had only one day against their record.

The following people got at least 145 of the 152 spelling words right in a review test last week : Paula Burull (perfect score), Mary Boring, Nancy Lehrbass, Jane Graham, Chris Schroeder, Louise Bader, Raymond Fisher, Josephine Nemecek, Jean Graham, Suzanne Malpass and Susan Jeffrey.

We were interested to hear that Mrs. Bowerman had seen one of our 1st grade classmates, Sandra Gibbard, in a restaurant in Harrison. She is going to school in Ann Arbor.

Editorial

How does a town go about getting a new industry?

Here's what we heard about one of our neighboring towns.

Seems like several years ago a man was motoring through northern Michigan and, by chance, stopped in at a certain gas station in this town. While his tank was being filled, the owner of the gas station bustled about cleaning the windshield, putting air into the tires, etc. All the while this gas station owner was telling his customer about what a fine town they had, how nice the people were, and how good the fishing, hunting, winter sports and living conditions were.

The fellow left this town, but never forgot that "sales talk" that was given him so convincingly by this gas station owner.

In the past few months this same fellow was in the position of having to move his factory to a different site. Naturally his thoughts drifted back to this gas station owner's home town, and he said, "If this man is so thoroughly sold on his home town as he sounded, guess I'll look into the matter."

The rest is now history. The man came to our neighboring town, liked what he found, local citizens and the local bank cooperated and raised funds to build this man a building that he could buy back at reasonable terms.

East Jordan already has several good industries.

Several empty buildings in the business district are good evidence to the fact that we need more.

What are YOU doing to make East Jordan an attractive place for strangers when they come to your place of business?

Do they say, next year, "Let's wait until we get to that gas station at East Jordan where that friendly fellow talked to us last year?"

Or do the kids say to dad, "Aw dad, let's wait until we get to East Jordan to eat where we had so much fun and got those chicken drumsticks at that restaurant last year?"

The same applies to every business place in East Jordan, even you and I.

We're all in the same boat, either we'll all survive or we'll all drown together.

It's time to make a joint endeavor for survival.

When do WE start?

Your home-town newspaper, the Charlevoix County Herald, can't do it alone.

You can't do it alone.

WE can do it.

Mich. State Ferries Set New Record

The Michigan State Ferries set three new records during the five days preceding the opening of the deer-hunting season, according to Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler, who personally directed operations of the five state vessels in service and the dock crews at Mackinaw City.

The first record was for total number of northbound vehicles carried on the State Ferries. During the 5-day, pre-season period, a total of 19,500 cars were handled, compared to 15,779 in the corresponding period a year ago, an increase of 23½ percent.

The largest single day's business in the history of the State Ferries was recorded in the 24-hour period from midnight Wednesday, November 12, to midnight on Thursday, November 13, with 6,755 vehicles crossing the Straits during this time, an increase of 1,112 over the previous heaviest traffic for one day, on July 4, 1952.

The third record established concerned the speed with which the hunter traffic was moved on the boats and across the Straits. At no time was there a line-up on the highway near the Mackinaw City docks. With the single exception of a period of a few hours during the peak traffic on the record day, the hunters' cars were loaded on the State Ferries as fast as they arrived at the docks. In past years, there have been frequent line-ups for miles along the highways entering Mackinaw City.

Addition of the big icebreaker ferry, the Vacationland, to the State Ferry fleet has played a big part in the faster ferry service. The Vacationland carries 150 vehicles per load and is faster than any of the other four state boats in the Straits fleet. Construction of new docks a St. Ignace, 1½ miles south of the old docks, has also improved service by reducing the round trip of the boats by 3 miles and approximately 15 minutes time, making possible considerable more trips per day.

Hunter Fined $115 For Illegal Hunting In Michigan

Cooperation of conseryation enforcement officers in Indiana and Michigan put an end to one violator's activity recently, the conservation department reports.

The story began to unfold when an alert Indiana officer found a deer in a locker plant in his area, bearing a Michigan resident tag. The deer belonged to an Indiana resident.

He notified Michigan authorities, who began a routine check. They found the man had purchased a resident hunting license. Checking further, they found he also purchased a half-year Michigan auto license and a Michigan operator's license to make the whole story of his Michigan residence look real.

Finally, Indiana reported the violator was back in Michigan, trying for another deer—having used his wife's license for the first one. Apprehended, he was charged with hunting illegally on a Michigan resident license and with removing a deer from the state illegally.

The violator paid fines and costs totalling $115, had hunting privileges revoked for three years and was given seven days in jail to mull over the whole affair.

Indiana and Michigan cooperated on the case as acting members of the Association of Midwestern Fish and Game Law Enforcement Officers.

The Servicemens' LETTER

Hi Fellas:

The Christmas season is just around the corner. In fact it's not too far around, either. I had mute evidence of that fact this last week when I received my first Christmas card from an overseas serviceman. Clare Loomis took that means of notifying us that he is leaving North Africa soon and will be here in East Jordan around the 27th or 28th of Dec. His address after December 12th will be: Clare A. Loomis, CN, MCB No. 8, Co A, Davisville, Rhode Island.

Larry Whiteford has changed training at Fort Bliss, Texas. Here's his new address: Pvt Lawrence H. Whiteford, US 55 288 501, Btry A, 4th Trn Bn, AAA, Fort Bliss, Texas.

Korean veteran Alfred Hosler is still with the 167th Infantry Division at Camp Atterbury, Ind.

but has recently been moved from Company G to Hq & Hq Co.

Bill Anderson has finished his Air Force Basic at Lackland and has now moved to Biggs AFB in Texas. His new address is: A|3C William C. Anderson, 97th Fld Maint Sqdn, Biggs AFB, Texas. As soon as your duties are assigned, drop us a line Bill and give all of us the low down.

Dave Wade, who suddenly was called for overseas duty after being assigned to Marine AB at El Toro, is now on training maneuvers in Nev. in preparation to being shipped. His address is: Pfc David S. Wade, 122-81-74, VMR 253, MAC 25, USMCAS, El Toro, Santa Ana, California, (Notice-28 Repl Draft). That last part in parentheses is a vital part of the address.

Ed Drapeau's mother called me tonight and informed me that Ed was on his way from Sacramento, California to Laredo, Texas. As soon as we get his new address we'll give it to you.

Here's a letter from Earl Hart over in Swhinfort, Germany. "I guess it is about time to send you my address so that I can start getting the paper again. There might be someone from E. J. close by that I could drop in on. The weather hasn't been so good over here lately. It rains just about every day and has been cold, but it hasn't snowed much. I suppose everyone up there is getting ready to go deer hunting. I know I would be if I were home.

'I am in S-4, supply now. It should be a good deal, that is if anything in the army is a good deal."

Thanks for the letter, Earl. I hope your quarters are good and warm. Germany can get pretty nasty in the winter time. If any of you men get near Swhinfort you can find Earl with the Service Batry of the 7th FA Bn.

Last week it was reported to me that Dave Vallance was moving to Kansas. I guess he thought he was going up there but at the last moment he was left behind so he is still at his old address at the base at Lackland.

Here's a letter from a newcomer to our mailing list who appears to be taking the army life in stride the same way he did the hardware business at home. Al Chanda writes, "Well, the Army isn't bad after all. We got to Fort Knox last night at 8:00 and actually got to bed before 12:00. We had an address by the Co. Commander and then a hot supper. We have today off and have a turkey dinner. Last Sunday we had chicken.

'I got separated from by buddies but you can pick up some more almost as fast as you lose the old ones. It's cold down here nights but the sun comes up during the day and it warms up.

'I passed my OCS test but I'm not taking the course because it means at least 4 years and they can hold you indefinitely. After this week we start basic and by what the CO said it won't be fun. However, he said it was all up to us, that we could make it decent or real tough depending on us.

"Well, Jake,, it's 11:40 and chow formation will be called in 5 minutes so I'll sign off for now. Say Hello to everyone in E. J. for me. My address is: Pvt. Albert G. Chanda, US 55 317 006, Btry B, 54th Armd F A Bn, CCA, 3rd Armd Div, Fort Knox, Kentucky."

Take a good grip on those bars in that obstacle course, Al.

Another recruit for the army is Donald H. Graham. He has just landed in Fort Riley, Kansas, and here's his address: Pvt Donald H. Graham, RA 16 427 441. Co I, 86th Inf Regt, 10th Inf Div., Fort Riley, Kansas.

Brock Peacock left here the first week in November bound for Europe and here's his new address already: Pfc Brock G. Peacock, RA 16 355 695, 334th C|R Co, APO 743, c|o PM, New York, N. Y. How about it, Brock, are your duties to secret to write about?

A letter here from Don Danforth fixes his location as Suwon, Korea. He writes, "I guess I should have written a long time ago but I didn't for some reason or other. They have me over here in Korea at last. I am with the 802nd E. A. Bn, which is with the Air Force We are at a little town called Suwon about 26 miles from Souel and around 55 miles from the front lines. The 8th Fighter Bomber Group is at this base.

'I rode on about everything the army has on my way over. here to Korea— by Air, by Water (I got a little sick on the Ocean. We were out there 12 days), and by land in trucks and trains and even a little ways in a jeep. So you see they used a lot of transport to get me to just this one place.

'I am writing this letter in the morning about 6:00. I go to work at 7:00 and work until 5:30, 7 days a week. The food is just as good as in the states. The only thing I don't like is that we live in tents. About 8 men to a tent. We have two oil stoves in each tent but they don't keep them warm when it gets cold.

'I work down in the motor pool as a mechanic. I work on 4-ton jobs down to the little jeeps.

'Boy but it is good to get the paper from E. J. It takes about 7 days for it to get here. Got to quit now, time to go to work." Don's addess is: Pvt Donald Danforth, RA 16 405 441, Co C, 802nd E. A. B., APO 970, c|o PM, San Francisco, Calif

The deer hunting season is over for another year They sure took a lot of does out of the woods those last three days. You noticed that I said "they", didn't you.

So Long, "Jake" Snyder.

Record Ore Shipments Cut Expected Shortages

Though the two-month long steel strike this summer threatened to wreck American production for 1952, record iron ore shipments since the strike already have cut expected shortages by mor than one-third, the conservation department reports.

The strike's impact on the U. S. and Canadian economies probably will be felt for years, but ore shipments through the Great Lakes have been rolling along full tilt since the strike ended July 25.

In August, the fleet of nearly 300 ore boats hauled about 14.3 million tons, a million more than in August, 1951. In September, the fleet set an all-time record for that month, hauling a whopping 14.4 million tons, more by nearly two million tons than the previous September. Part of this increase was carried by new ore boats, added to the fleet since 1951.

The Great Lakes area produces about 97 million tons of ore each year from the big mining district around the western end of Lake Superior. When the strike ended this year, ore production was 22 million tone behind 1951. That deficit has since been cut to about 15 million, and may be hacked to 13 million before the shipping season ends in December.

About 75 million tons have been shipped thus far this year; at this date last year, 90 million tons had been shipped.

Weather can play an important part in cutting the ore deficit still further. Generally the shipping season runs from mid-April to early or mid-December; but mild weather this fall may allow ore boats more operation during December than normally.

GRAND PRIZE WINNER
EIGHTH NATIONAL TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

December's safety message to school children throughout the state is a warning against turning cars. A quick look, if followed by a dash into the street, isn't enough to protect youngsters from cars that come around corners "from nowhere." To help children remember this danger, Automobile Club of Michigan has sent 10,500 full size copies of this poster to elementary schools in Michigan.

The young feller who keeps watchin' the clock is likely to stay just one of the hands.

Jim had always dreamed of owning his own machine shop.

He saved his money, went out on his own, now has the town's most successful shop.

But what had fire insurance to do with it?

Without insurance he could not have borrowed money to buy a building . . . nor bought machinery on such liberal credit terms.

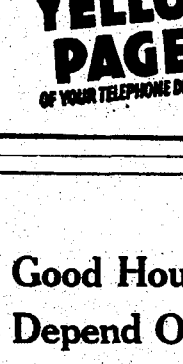

That's how fire insurance helps every businessman, even without a fire. Should fire strike, it supplies money immediately to replace what is destroyed. It helps maintain the business freedom that Jim and millions like him enjoy . . . a way of life which has made and will keep this country strong.

Your fire insurance rate per $100 protection is as much as 30% lower today than it was 30 years ago. Write for booklet giving the facts and telling other advantages of stock company fire insurance.
